Eight songs; for solo voice, one or two woodwinds, and continuo. Edited by Gertrude Parker Smith. Northampton, Mass., Smith College ¡1951¡
¡12¡ p., score (38 p.) and parts. 29 cm. (Smith College music archives, no. 11)
The continuo is realized for a keyboard instrument. Words in Italian. The parts are for woodwinds.
"This edition is based on the manuscript collection of Dr. Alfred Einstein at Smith College. Of the eight songs all but one are taken from four volumes entitled Trastulli in the Staatsbibliothek at Munich where they were listed as of unknown authorship until Dr. Einstein identified them as a collection of opera and cantata pieces by Steffani. No. 7 is taken from a manuscript in the Biblioteca Estense at Modena entitled Sei Scherzi a voce sola con accomp. di piffari o di violini. It is a part only of the fifth scherzo which is in itself a small cantata."—p. ¡5¡
